Romance with CHIKAN KARI

Romance with Chikan kari tells the story of a Persian craft brought to the court of Jahangir by his beautiful and talented consort Noor Jahan, Born Mehr-un-Nissa. The word Chikan is probably a derivative of the Persian word chakeen which means a kind of embroidered fabric. Term Chikan is used for the white floral embroidery which is done on the finest Malmal fabric. In Charbagh collection, we tried to achieve this royal, delicate and artfully done hand embroidered technique of Chikan kari on 100% cotton Swiss Voile which provides crisp and structure to the fabric. Along with cotton thread embroidery we have added hand embellished necklines with dazzling Kora, Kamdani, Gotta, pearls and shimmery sequin to enhance the richness. We have paired embroidered shirts with printed Chiffon dupattas having elegant crochet laces and tassels.
